26 Copies of the rules for the election of Chairman & Vice-Chairman of a Municipal Council in the Madras Presidency are submitted.

HK
30/8/917 27 The Madras rules are more elaborate than the rules now proposed for adoption in Mysore, and they provide for all cases under existing conditions in the State, it is doubtful if such elaborate rules are necessary or workable In Madras the Municipal Chairman may be elected from outside the Municipal Council. The Vice Chairman must be a member of the Municipal Council

28 Rule 4 (d) of the Madras rules requires that no candidate nominated for Election should take part in the ballot This rule may cause a good deal of inconvenience if the majority of the members present at an Election meeting are nominated for Election The Madras rule regarding the Successful Candidate obtaining more than half the total number of votes given by members in the Council may not be required in Mysore under present conditions An absolute majority need not insisted on It is sufficient if the Successful candidate has more votes than any other candidate

Draft Rules framed by the Government for the election of Presidents and Vice Presidents of Municipal Councils, when under Section 23 (2) (c) of the Municipal Regulation the powers to elect President or Vice President or both should be conferred on any Municipal Counci

Before discussing the draft rules, Mr. C.V Narasimhiengar brought to the notice of the Council that the Government proposed to pass the rules with reference to paragraph 7 of Government Order

No

No. 3003-55/M1, 1918-19-1 dated the 16th November 1918. This paragraph merely declared the preparedness of Government to accept as far as possible the recommendation of the Local Self Government Conference to vest in the City Municipal Councils the power to elect their Presidents and Vice Presidents. In Mr. C.V.Narasimhaiengar's opinion the power to frame rules on this head lay with the Municipal Councils - such power not having been reserved to Government in the Municipal Regulation as in the case of the election of Municipal Councillors. He doubted whether Government were competent to prescribe rules, until Sub-Section (2) (c) of Section 25 of the Municipal Regulation was suitably amended, conferring on them powers on this behalf. Mr. M. Basavayya agreed in the above view.

Mr. S. Venkatranga Iyengar considered that the rule that the President and Vice President may be elected by the Municipal Council from amongst the Municipal Councillors, if the Government so directs was sufficiently comprehensive and left it to the Government to direct the manner in which the election should be held.

Mr. Karnik Krishnamurthi Rao proposed that the consideration of the draft rules may be deferred pending settlement of the question as to whether it was the Municipal Council or the general body of voters that should be elect the President and the Vice President. Revd. D.A. Rees disagreed and said that in view of the Municipal Council having already resolved that the election should be by the Municipal Council, there was no necessity to defer consideration of the subject on the day's agenda on this score.

Mr. M. Basavayya stated that the Government had passed no orders yet on the resolution of the Municipal Council to be permitted to elect their own President and the Vice President and that he favoured deferring a discussion on the subject till the Government had passed definite orders.

Mr. B.K. Garuda Char pointed out that the City Municipal Council had come to a definite understanding on the subject of elect-the draft rules to elect Presidents and Vice Presidents whenever such powers should be conferred on the Municipal Councils need not be deferred pending orders on the resolution of any one Municipal Council. If the Government approved of the resolution of the Bangalore City Municipal Council, the rules would come into force here, if not, they would not.

The Honorary President then took the sense of the meeting. 8 Councillors voted in favour of taking up the consideration of the draft rules and 7 were against.

The draft rules were accordingly taken up and each rule was voted upon after discussion.

Rule (1) - The election shall be subject to the approval of Government.

Resolution.- Passed (Unanimously)

Rule (2) - The election shall take place at the first meeting of the newly constituted Municipal Council, or at the meeting held on a day not later than one month from the date of the Govern ment order, if the direction was given during the term of office of the existing Council as the case may be

Resolution.- Passed (Unanimously)

Rule (3) - The election shall not be held unless at least half of the total number of Councillors are present at the meeting, and Rule (ii) In the case of the City Municipal Council "Government" shall be substituted for "The Deputy Commissioner" wherever this occures. In caluse (iii) two thirds shall be substituted for "one-half".

Resolution.- The 1st part of Rule (ii) is passed, in so far as the rules (3) related to the Bangalore City Municipal Council, it may be enjoined that four-fifths of the total number of Councillors shoul be present at the meeting
